“How to Publish in a Top Tier English Language Scholarly Journal”

Marc Rodriguez

Associate Professor of History, Portland State University
Managing Editor, Pacific Historical Review

In 2012, Professor Marc Rodriguez was awarded the NACCS Tejas Nonfiction Book Award, National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies, Tejas Foco, for his book The Tejano Diaspora : Mexican Americanism and Ethnic Politics in Texas and Wisconsin (University of North Carolina Press, 2011).

Dr. Rodriguez' most recent book, Rethinking the Chicano Movement (Routledge Press, 2015), is a synthetic history of the Mexican American civil rights movement of the 1960s and 1970s.

His present research interests include historical memory and the establishment of immigration/migration museums in the west. He is currently writing a history of Latinos in the United States, and a history of the jury right in the United States.
