Doshisha Business School
GLOBAL MBA
Master's Degree Program, Global Business and Management Studies
Beyond ‘Business As Usual’

Established in 1875, Doshisha University is widely recognized as one of Japan’s top comprehensive universities, with a distinguished history of education based on founder Joseph Hardy Neesima’s philosophy of “education guided by conscience”. Doshisha Business School (DBS) opened in 2004, following a long tradition of successful Kyoto-based global corporations such as Omron, Kyocera, Shimadzu, and Nintendo. Our English-language Global MBA was inaugurated alongside the school’s Japanese MBA in 2009, and following five successful years was strengthened as an independent Global MBA (Global Business and Management Studies) in 2014 with a bolstered dedicated faculty and expanded course offerings. Sharing the vision of our university’s founder, we strongly believe that companies and businesspeople must strive not only for financial success, but also to make a positive social contribution to the world in which we live.

With a focus on sustainability, the Doshisha Global MBA guides students to explore and enquire beyond the established boundaries set by established theories and practices of global business and management to look beyond ‘business as usual’. As they grow into global-minded leaders, students will not only cover the breadth of standard MBA core subjects, but also develop deeper insights from our three focus areas, and hone their analytical prowess through the research component.

Our aim is to prepare future business leaders who are willing and able to respond effectively to the emerging needs of the increasingly diverse groups of people participating in the global economy. Doshisha Business School’s Global Business and Management Studies offers a unique experience to students and professors willing to work in partnership when exploring — and challenging — traditions and trends in global business and management.

Doshisha Business School is located in the beautiful and historic city of Kyoto, within Japan’s “Kansai” region (centered around Kyoto–Osaka–Kobe). Set in picturesque natural surroundings, Kyoto offers an exciting blend of traditional and modern, with 17 UNESCO World Heritage sites, various artistic and spiritual pursuits, a safe and fun nightlife, and much more. The Kansai region is also the industrial heart of Japan, with a large number of manufacturers and numerous R&D centers and high-tech science parks. We encourage students to capitalize on being in this special place with its historic network of innovative and creative industries.

People Hold The Key

Since its inception, a striking feature of the Doshisha Global MBA has been the diversity of the people who make our MBA experience special. The students we work with come from a wide variety of backgrounds: to illustrate, from 2009 to the present year we have welcomed students from seventy countries. Correspondingly, we welcome applications from aspiring and inspiring individuals regardless of gender, ethnicity, nationality, or religion.

If you’re seeking a career boost and would like to make a difference through business, take a good look at the Doshisha Global MBA (Global Business and Management Studies). We look forward to hearing from you.
Program Highlights

Global MBA Focus Areas

Sustainability and Green Business

Drawing on Kyoto’s legacy as birthplace of the Kyoto Protocol, and on the advances of Japanese companies in developing green technologies and adopting sustainable business practices, our Sustainability and Green Business courses provide students with a solid foundation in the theory and practice of managing firms in a sustainable way, including increasing energy efficiency, reducing waste, managing the environmental impact of business, and finding ways to promote sustainability in all aspects of a company’s operations.

Culture and Creativity

Cultural and creative industries — ranging from anime, music, video games, and film to fashion, design, traditional crafts, and cultural tourism — are dynamic sectors in today’s knowledge economy with far reaching economic, social, and political implications. Japanese pop culture, for example, is not just big business; it is considered a form of “soft power” that brings the world closer together.

More broadly, creativity and innovation are increasingly demanded of individuals, companies, and societies in today’s competitive business environment. Global MBA Culture and Creativity courses prepare students to manage successfully in the cultural sector and give them a creative edge that can be applied in any company or industry.

Business in Asia

Accounting for one third of world GDP — greater than that of the United States or the EU — Asia is the most dynamic region of the world economy. And not just as a cheap-labor based producer of manufactured goods; Asian companies are leading innovators and Asian markets for other countries’ products and services are the fastest growing in the world. Asia is a mosaic — of traditional and modern, of diverse histories, geography, cultures, political systems, and business practices. Our Business in Asia courses give students the tools to understand and navigate these various differences and dynamics.

Preparation for Japan-related Job Opportunities

For those interested in working in Japan or for a Japanese company overseas, the Global MBA provides practical training and advice on job hunting in Japan, and access to Japanese language courses offered by the university’s Center for Japanese Language and Culture free of charge. As Doshisha Business School is home to both Global and Japanese MBA programs, Global MBA students with a suitable level of Japanese are able to take a number of Japanese MBA classes. Japanese students are also encouraged to take some Global MBA courses in English. This provides a great opportunity to interact with Japanese MBA students, most of whom are full-time managers in Kansai companies.

Overseas Partner Universities

Adding another dimension to their experience, students have the opportunity to apply to study at one of our overseas partner universities. We also welcome exchange students from these institutions, adding to the cosmopolitan nature of the Doshisha Global MBA.

Career and Alumni Network

Career Advancement
An MBA is an investment in your future, whether you are looking to change careers or to move into a managerial position in your present field. Today’s job market for MBAs is strong. According to a corporate recruiter’s survey conducted by the Graduate Management Admissions Council (GMAC), demand for business school graduates is particularly high in Asia Pacific with 87% of companies surveyed planning to hire MBA holders in 2019.

Japanese Firms Recruiting International Students
With a shrinking domestic market and a generation of young Japanese that tends to look more inward than abroad, Japanese companies are sharply increasing their recruitment of non-Japanese as they expand their global operations. What these companies seek in their non-Japanese recruits are language ability, an understanding of Japanese business practices, strong drive, and the communication skills and perspective that come from experience in a multicultural environment.

Corporate Internships
Corporate internships offer students a chance to apply what they’ve learned in the classroom to the real world, to experience business practices first-hand, and to expand their network of business connections. They also give students and companies a chance to get to know each other, and can lead to employment opportunities after graduation.

Many Global MBA students do internships, either in Japan or overseas. Among the business areas they have worked in are market entry research, business development, data analysis, diversity management, and corporate communications. Students may also use an internship as part of the research for their Master’s Thesis or Research Project Report.

Career Resources
Our career center provides resources, information, and advice on employment opportunities, job fairs, and the job-hunting process to help you explore and realize your career goals. We regularly invite external speakers to provide seminars for MBA students and coordinate with the university for on-site recruitment events.

Our career services include:
• Career assessment and planning
• Resume and cover letter writing assistance
• Job interview coaching
• One-on-one career consultation
• Up-to-date job listings
• E-Career web portal
• Career fairs, recruiting events, and workshops
• Contact list of recent graduates

Where Do Our Graduates Work?
While many of our students seek positions with established companies in Japan and abroad, a growing number look to develop their own businesses or join up-and-coming small and medium enterprises. With the skills and international experience gained during their MBA studies, our graduates are prepared to work in a range of companies and environments.

A few of the well-known companies our graduates have gone on to work for include:
• Amazon, Inc. (China)
• Bosch Vietnam Co., Ltd. (Vietnam)
• Calsonic Kansai
• Daimler Trucks Asia
• Dell Inc. Japan
• Hitachi Capital Corporation
• Hitachi Construction Machinery
• ITCHU Corporation
• Konica Minolta Business Technologies Inc.
• KYOCERA Corporation
• Mitsubishi Corporation (Turkmenistan)
• Mitsubishi FUSO
• Mitsubishi UFJ Trust & Banking Corporation

Doshisha Business School Network
The Doshisha Business School Network was organized in 2006, connecting students, professors, alumni, and members of the Kansai business community. Current students and recent alumni from both the Global MBA and the Japanese MBA programs regularly collaborate to produce the DBSN student newsletter as well as organize seminars and networking events, providing opportunities to build relationships outside of the classroom. Access to the DBS Network is an important benefit of studying in our Global MBA and can open doors to support you in your business career.

Doshisha Alumni Association (Doshisha Kōyū-kai)
Doshisha Kōyū-kai originated from the “Alumni-kai” that was organized in 1885, ten years after Doshisha was founded. This association includes graduates from all Doshisha institutions, from elementary schools to the university level. Doshisha graduates actively working around the world now total to more than 330,000 people. In addition to the 48 branches throughout Japan, there are overseas chapters and clubs located in 31 cities of 20 countries around the world. With an increasingly international student body at the university, the DAA network is sure to spread far and wide as branches of the vine in the spirit of Doshisha.

After working in Japan for two years, I gained a perspective on my strengths and weaknesses as a professional. My weaknesses were mostly emerging from two problems: my lack of Japanese proficiency and an insufficient understanding of the Japanese business environment. As I aspire to run a business in Japan following emerging environmental business models, studying for my MBA in the rich and diverse environment of Doshisha was a natural choice for me. I found myself fitting in to the study environment as soon as the courses started and I am looking forward to developing my career.

The Global MBA offers practical training, with a range of specializations that give students a chance to apply what they have learned in the classroom to the real, competitive world. The university environment is welcoming to international students; it is a very diverse environment where you will meet students from around the globe that could become future business contacts.

I believe that being in a diverse international environment where you can learn about people different than yourself is the best way of learning. My objective when I first thought about coming to Japan was to explore myself and see life from other perspectives by getting out of my comfort zone. Once I arrived in Kyoto, I immediately fell in love with it. The environment that I found here in Doshisha was beyond my expectations. It is very welcoming, tolerant, and academically challenging. Every moment I’m learning something new. Sometimes I wonder just how much I’ll have learned and changed after finishing this program.

Satanas Phut-charapravoong

I used to study Japanese at Doshisha University as an exchange student. After four years, I decided to come back to study business. I strongly believe that Doshisha and Kyoto are among the best places for studying and living. As I had been working for a Japanese company, I am eager to deepen my understanding of Japanese corporations, Japanese business practices, and business in Asia so that I can work to strengthen the connections between Japanese firms and other countries. Already, I’ve found that the diverse student body at Doshisha Business School presents many new experiences and opportunities to exchange opinions and learn about how to do business in different countries.

After two exciting years at Doshisha Business School, I am now ready to continue my professional career. I have grown immensely both as a professional and an individual through the unique combination of experiences this program offered. In addition to building my business skills, I was able to experience adapting to a new and exciting city, strengthen my Japanese culture and language knowledge through complimentary classes, and secure a global network. I searched for a position that would leverage the skills I gained during my time in the Global MBA program, and I was offered a job within the Logistics Planning Department at Daikin Industries in Osaka. Now more than ever, I am ready to tackle this new challenge.

I had a great experience studying with students from over 20 different countries and learning from professors who have abundant connections and experiences in Japanese businesses. Coming from a marketing background, it was amazing to get a chance to intern at Daiko Advertising Inc, as a student, and then to be hired by my current employer, Info Cubic Japan. Learning about the marketing environment of Japan and how to recognize the thinking and action modes of people in different countries always interested me, and I really appreciate the Global MBA program for helping me open a new door in my life.

The Global MBA experience provided me with the necessary injection of new skills and encounters I sought for my professional and personal development. The various course offerings allowed me to select courses I believed were battleground for my development and the DBS experience enriched my life in various dimensions. The diverse student and staff complement allowed me connect with individuals I would’ve never imagined connecting with, and that, for me, is what made the entire duration of my studies at DBS really wholesome and unforgettable!

Zhassulan Mambayev

Prior entering the Global MBA program, I was concerned about shifting my study focus from a purely legal to a wider range of disciplines. However, the combination of the program design, expertise and experience of the faculty members, as well as the diversity within each class, helped make the transition very smooth. The knowledge and skills that I gained at DBS was immediately applicable during my internship at Mitsubishi FUSO, which led to a full-time position with the company. I shared amazing times together with friends at DBS. Be it going out to enjoy Kyoto’s magnificent mountains, rivers, temples, and shrines, or simply having fun at home parties.
