

DOSHISHA

WEEK

2022

Doshisha Week is an exchange program between Doshisha University and the University of Tübingen (Germany), starting in 2019. This year, for the purpose of student exchange, with the cooperation of the Doshisha University Calligraphy Club and the Japanese Studies Department of the University of Tübingen, we will hold lectures, Presentation of ancient Japanese scrolls, workshops and exhibition projects on the theme of calligraphy. If you are interested in learning about calligraphy, why not listen to a lecture, appreciate a work of art, and experience calligraphy in a workshop?

【Day & Time】

Nov. 25th (Fri) 17:00 – 20:00

【Venue】

Kainoma (Japanese-style room), Kambaikan 1st floor, Imadegawa Campus

【Program】

17:00 Opening ceremony

17:15 Video lecture "Philosophy of Calligraphy"
by Mr. Taiho Konishi (Calligrapher)

17:55 "Presentation of three works of ancient Japanese calligraphy: history and interpretation"
by Dr. Karin Moser v. Filseck
(Live from University of Tübingen)

18:30 Break

18:45 Introduction of the Doshisha University
Calligraphy Club

19:00 Calligraphy workshop

19:45 Closing ceremony

*The event will be conducted via online connection with the University of Tübingen on the day.

【Language】

English

(Japanese and German are also used for auxiliary purpose)

【Registration】

Please sign up below (deadline: Nov. 22nd)

<https://forms.office.com/r/jxxec7dSJT>

Office of International Affairs, Doshisha University (Fusokan 1st floor) ji-kksai@mail.doshisha.ac.jp

